FOREWORD

As you leaf through my pages, may the warm, happy memories of the classmates, teachers, activities, and events that were a part of your school life at Camden-Frontier School come alive before your eyes. Treasure me, and many years hence I can be your link with these acquaintances who will share these recollections with you though you be miles apart. Mellowed by sober thoughts, brightened by the humorous touch, enlivened by familiar faces, endeared by messages your friends have penned, I am very personally yours.

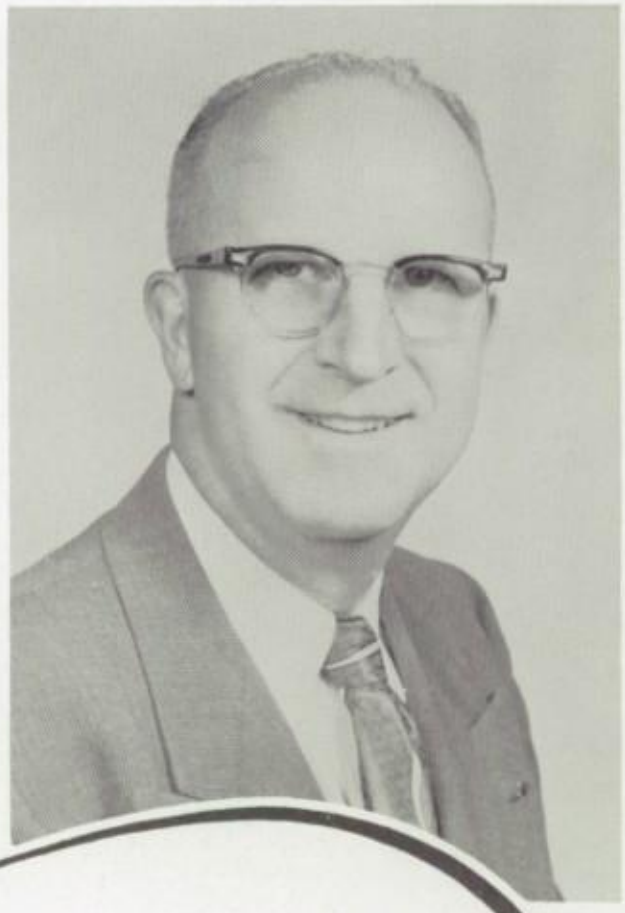
DEDICATION



To our helpful and understanding superintendent who has rendered every sincere effort to uphold the spirit of Camden-Frontier school; to one who has worked without ceasing for our educational improvement; to one who has encouraged us in all our undertakings; who in his years at Camden-Frontier has guided us willingly, faithfully and with fullest capacity, we, the Senior Class of 1960, proudly dedicate this edition of THE REDSKIN to our very own -

Mr. Ralph H. Miller

IN APPRECIATION TO OUR SPONSORS

ALMA MATER

Thine honor is our one delight,
C-F Hi, our C-F Hi.
Thy colors true are red and white,
C-F Hi, our C-F Hi.
We love to linger in thy halls,
Thy spirit now each heart enthralls.
Adn e'en the ivy on thy walls,
Speaks to us of C-F Hi.

Thou are not living in the past,
C-F Hi, our C-F Hi.
Thy high ideals must always last,
C-F Hi, our C-F Hi.
In classroom, field, or factory great,
We labor on to dedicate.
The glory of what we create,
To our dear, old C-F Hi.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

To the Class of 1960 I find it a privilege to submit a message for your yearbook. Through your yearbook you will be able to reminisce about the many aspects of school life.

As you recall your various teachers, I am sure you will remember your teachers other than ones who confined their teaching to the four walls of the room and the two covers of a textbook. You found your teachers to be a specially trained group who are dedicated to trying to increase the opportunities for young people to develop their minds. Students, who have promise, are encouraged to continue their education beyond high school because the society in which we live is demanding a more highly specialized and complex trained person.

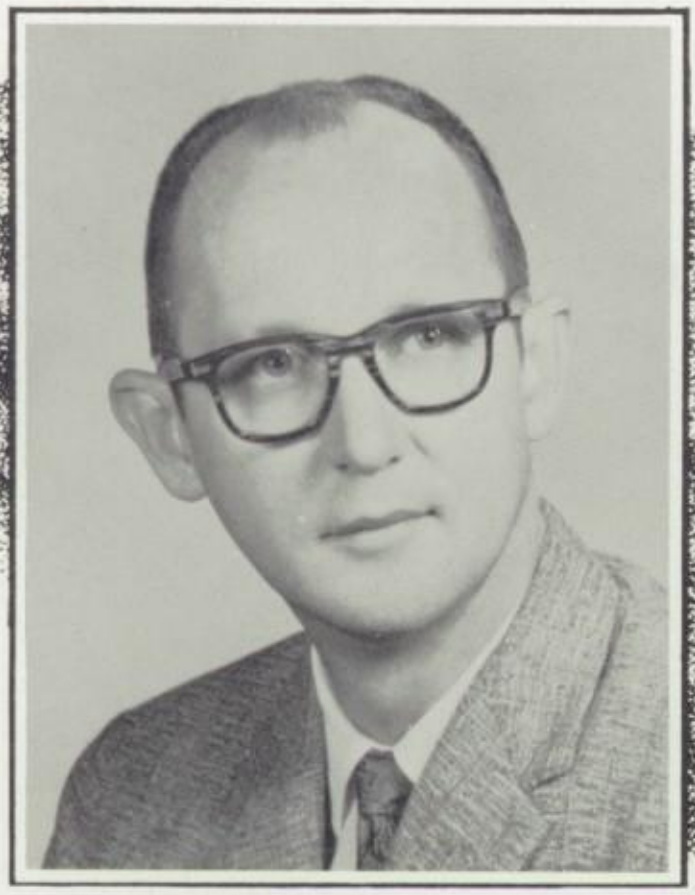
You were urged to search your own mind and personality for the things that you can do to be of greater help to your school, community, and every person who touches your life.

Your success will not be measured only by financial gain. Personal satisfaction and peace of mind help when the financial gain is not always great. Among the helps recalled you will see your teachers trying to teach you to be generous, kind, pleasant, and well mannered.

As you think over the past, it is hoped that your school days will harbor no regrets, particularly "muffed" opportunities and foolish decisions. There is one way to replace these regrets and that is with the kind of action in the future that you will not regret.

Ralph Miller

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE



Again it is my privilege, through this message, to express my congratulations to our Senior Annual Staff and to all persons involved in making this Annual, the 1960 Redskin, another successful pictorial publication. Little do most people realize the time and painstaking work involved, the inevitable hurrying and overtime work to meet dead lines, and of course the tedious proofreading involved to make sure a presentable book will be the finished product. Again best wishes to a hard working group.

To every senior of the graduating class, this Annual is one of the evidences of your completion of high school. Your senior pictures and the many and varied activity pictures in this Annual are merely preliminaries to the climax of your ultimate goal, the high school diploma. Each parent, faculty member, and friend hopes that each senior can tuck his annual under one arm and his diploma under the other and keep a memory of those good times experienced while in school and most of all a memory of the knowledge of the fundamental educational processes.

Again, to every senior in the 1960 graduating class, I wish to extend my heartiest congratulations and wish each of you all the happiness and success possible in your chosen field of endeavor. I hope, because of your accomplishments within the next few years, that I can say that I am mighty proud to have had you in class and that you are a Camden-Frontier graduate.

CLASS PROPHECY

One morning as I stepped to the front porch of my new Long Beach, California home to get the milk, I was shocked to see a miniature BILL GRATZ sitting on the milk bottles. Bill had been conducting an experiment in reducing the size of human beings and had accidentally reduced himself to a height of four inches. He told me that along with this feat he had gained the power to do magic things, and he asked what more than anything else I wanted. I replied that I wanted to see my classmates and learn what they were doing now, twenty years after our graduation from Camden-Frontier High School. With a swish of his hand a blue mist arose in front of me and I saw my classmates and what they were doing. I saw AARON GILMORE, who was wearing a helmet and racing jacket with the word "baldy" inscribed on it. Bill told me that he was the sweepstakes holder at Butler Motor Speedway. As Aaron faded back into the blue mist another figure became distinct, it was HILDA PENOYAR, who, as a famous lawyer, had taken the place of Perry Mason on CBS. As the billows of mist fumed, three persons appeared, NEIL HUKILL, BEN STRINGHAM, and JIM JENKINS who are now playing on the football All-Star team. The next figures looming into view were BILL DAVIS and DIANE BLOUNT who are now in charge of the Physical Education Department of good old Camden-Frontier High School. Next, floating before my vision were BARBARA STICKNEY, who is now secretary to GERRY KUSTER, president of the Ajax Popcorn Bag Company, and JUNE SIMERMAN, her assistant. A group now became visible whom I recognized as SARA COONEY, SUZANNE GILMORE, SIDNEY CARPENTER, KATHY RODGERS, and SHARON GOCHANOUR who make up the first Nurses' Union organized in the United States. As this group vanished, a tall man came into view, who could it be but LARRY BROWN, now a famous master of ceremonies on his exciting show "Larry Brown's Variety Hour." He proceeded to introduce the "New Three Stooges" comprised of ROBERT RUSSELL as "Moe," GEORGE RICHARDSON as "Curley" and GORDON GOLLNICK as "Larry," followed by a trombone duet by PAULINE KNAPP and BEVERLY GREENE. The show ended with an address by the great orator of the day, BEVERLY STANLEY. As the mist thinned and Larry's program evaporated, there emerged RONNIE NEWBAUER upon his trusty horse, "Barney," riding over the ridge of ROBERTA SHATELROW SHARP'S huge horse ranch. Ronnie is now head foreman on Bobbie's 10,000 acre horse ranch. A clear scene came into view; a beauty shop, in which the head operators are BARBARA MICHAEL and JULIA ROBINSON. Their first customer of the day was CAROL ROOST GOEBEL, the wife of Mr. Goebel who owns the Blatz Beer Bottling Company. Their second customer was JOYCE MARTENIES who is now the star pitcher for the Boston White Sox. Two more people who materialized were EUNICE DUNLAP and CARL SHOCK, now called "The Flying Zombies" in their great trapeze act. As their act ceased, a lion taming act started and to my surprise GERALD CARR was the foremost "lion tamer." I could make out two more people, PATTY HELMICK and DAVID WARFIELD, now the official lawn mowers of all the schools in the Camden-Frontier area. MARY SHROATS has taken over her father's position of Bus Supervisor. As the mist thickened, I spotted a figure, who, as he became barely visible, I knew was DALE SAWYER. He was wearing a Navy uniform and had become Admiral. DUANE MOORE was the next ex-classmate I beheld. He had become a movie star and the fans called him "Valentino the II." His heroine is the former JANIS FOUTS who now calls herself Jani' Bardot. Two shadows now came running toward me who I realized were DWIGHT DAHLSTROM and EUGENE FALER who were on their first trial race around the world. A lone figure came floating toward me, it was DONELDA MILLS now editor of the "New York Tribune." She was calling orders to the world's "fastest" reporter, STANLEY SMITH. Twelve little children and one adult confronted me whom I assumed to be JOY HAYNES GOLLNICK and her twelve little Gollnicks.

The mist grew thinner and thinner and I realized it was disappearing, but before it vanished I saw RUTH BAUGHMAN and CAROL BIRDSALL making flags in the far corner of their hospital, called "Home for the Beat Seniors."

The mist was gone, and so was Bill. Had I been dreaming or had "little Bill" actually visited me?

The Student Council, in the first six years of its life, has become highly respected in our school. Under the guidance of Mr. Miller and Mr. Reynolds, the council has moved forward, expanding the different fields.

One of the major steps of the Student Council this year has been to take over the election of cheerleaders in the effort to choose better personnel. The Student Council is continuously trying to improve the school standards in a way that graduates of Camden-Frontier may be proud of their school.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, during the fall of 1922, inaugurated the first high school cross country championship for the State of Michigan. The course was limited to two miles and all contestants were compelled to present a medical examination certificate before participation.

Camden-Frontier began cross country during the fall of 1955. The team was organized and first coached by Keith Griffin.

During the fall of 1957, Camden-Frontier won its first State Championship in Cross Country. The fall of 1958 and 1959, Camden-Frontier finished third at the State Final Meets.

The season of 1959, the Cross Country team won five meets and lost one. It took runner-up honors at the Hastings Hill and Dale Meet and won a runner-up trophy at the Albion Invitational Cross Country Meet.

Cross Country has a place in every high school. Many boys who do not wish to play football, find enjoyment and satisfaction in running. It is also an excellent sport for conditioning boys for basketball, building up their lungs and body for the long season ahead.
